Payson Community Theatre is a non-profit theatre organization which provides an artistic outlet to the residents of Payson and immediate surroundings. Payson Community Theatre is funded by individual contributions and Box Office revenue, along with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, Utah Arts Council, and Payson City, Inc.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

THE FOREIGNER marks our eighth P.C.T. winter production; and although the time has literally flown by as we've artistically developed, our bonding with and appreciation of our patrons has grown immensely. During the last eight years Utah Valley has also witnessed a community theatre explosion; and while the theatre quality of these groups varies, we have tried to offer our diligent audiences entertainment, education, and cultural enhancement. It is to our faithful and ever-supportive patrons that we offer a heartfelt thank-you. Your encouraging allegiance is what has kept us alive--and we sincerely realize that! Please keep coming, and always feel welcome to bring along a friend. To our first time patrons--WELCOME, and we hope that this evening's production of THE FOREIGNER will be the first of many times we will have the pleasure of your patronage.

As we have worked at producing quality community theatre for the citizenry of Payson and surrounding communities, we have all come to love, respect, and appreciate the vast talents of our actors, designers, technicians, and production staffs. Our union and friendships have become life-long, and something we will always cherish.

Since the simple themes of THE FOREIGNER deal with universal acceptance, charity, giving, and most importantly genuine love, I would like to dedicate this eighth P.C.T. winter production to one of our artistic staff that personifies all of the above listed qualities--Brenda Russell. Over the last 6 years Brenda has become a most valued and beloved member of the P.C.T. family. She has served as an assistant director, properties director, and Board member, fulfilling all responsibilities associated with each respective position wonderfully. She has worked on 1776, PETER PAN, BARNUM, SATURDAY'S WARRIOR, FARLEY FAMILY REUNION, BRIGHTON BEACH MEMOIRS, STEEL MAGNOLIAS, BLINDSIGHT, and is now the Assistant Director and Properties Director for THE FOREIGNER. She is truly an Un-Sung Hero, one that we now feel a need to desperately sing her praises. Someone once said, " your sole contribution to the sum of things is yourself." To Brenda Russell--we say thank you for giving so very much of yourself, your sole contribution has been tremendous, and is directly linked to our achievements, our success, and our longevity.
